

1854 Ceded Territory Manoomin Processors – 2018

All individuals and business owners listed here process hard-harvested manoomin, and have granted permission for their contact information to be shared with those seeking processing services.

If you are a manoomin processor and interested in having your contact information shared, please contact Marne Kaeske, Cultural Preservation Specialist with the 1854 Treaty Authority: mkaeske@1854treatyauthority.org
218-722-8907

Contact			Details
Susan Zimmerman	Sandstone	320-245-2720	Small batches (35-40 lbs). Please give fair warning with request.
Malory Manick	9324 Hwy 115 Cook, MN 55723	218-410-1595	No minimum. Parching: $2.50/finished lb, Threshing: $1/finished lb
A&amp;B Wild Rice Processing, Kenneth Bruns	Cass Lake	218-335-4135 only in service during season	Minimum: 300lb grain weight. Taking reservations (call ahead).

For more information, please visit the 1854 Treaty Authority's website for extensive information about manoomin (biology, regulations, harvesting and finishing, condition updates, and management projects): www.1854treatyauthority.org

These contacts are provided out of convenience for manoomin harvesters in the area. The 1854 Treaty Authority does not endorse the quality of any finished product.